Summer Reading/Writing Responsibilities

Book Report : Novels and Full-length Plays
AP, Honors, College Prep, and Academic Grades 9-12

1. What is the setting of the book? Give the time and the place in which the action occurs. Be specific. Use words or short phrases to indicate where and when.
2. Who is the main character? Describe the person. What are the character's physical traits? What is the character's personality like? What are some significant details about his/her life that influence the plot?
3. Each story has a main problem or conflict. Explain the conflict in the book.
4. In your opinion, what is the major theme of the work? State the theme in a sentence. Give specific examples from the book to support your point of view.
5. What is your opinion of the book? Support your opinion with an explanation.
6. Relate this book to something you already know. While you are reading, you should be relating it to something else you read or saw (a book, play, short story, news story), or relate the book to an event you have experienced, heard about, or have seen on television or at the movies. Of what does it remind you? Consider plot, character, or one of the characters.

- ❖ Answer the questions on a separate paper.
- ❖ Make sure you answer every question.
- ❖ Give the title and author of the book to which you are responding.
- ❖ You must answer all questions for both of the novels selected. AP students will be responding to "three" novels.
